Garvey, deputy health officer; E. F. Price, city auditor; Harry Hammond, member of school board; J. T. Preston, secretary of chamber of commerce; J. B. Waller, clerk of gas; W. M. Reardon, F. J. Pollard, M. L. Dinwiddie, Malcolm McLean, C. D. Hubbard, Robert Elliott, Leonard Chesser, A. J. Wedderburn, J. F. Peyton, and M. T. Dwyer.

Among the officials of the water company were Walter Roberts, Jas. W. Roberts, Worth Hulfish, and Geo. Uhler.

The trip was made in automobiles which left the offices of the company on St. Asaph street at five o'clock. Arriving at the work the party was taken in charge by David J. Howell, of D. J. Howell and Sons, the engineers in charge of the work, who explained the construction of the dam and the extent of the undertaking.

TO SERVE THREE MONTHS.

James Lucas Convicted of Stealing a Pistol Which Later Figured in a Murder.

As was stated yesterday, the pistol used by Joseph Willis, colored, when he shot and killed Virgil Jones, colored, at the Potomac railroad yards Sunday night, was taken from James Lucas by the murderer. It later developed that Lucas had stolen the weapon from Nat Brooks, colored, watchman at the Bryant Fertilizer plant, near the old Dominion Glass Works. Lucas was arrested yesterday and this morning appeared before the Police Court.

According to the evidence, Brooks fell asleep some time Sunday afternoon with the pistol along side him. When he awoke the shooting iron could not be found.

The evidence of Willis, who was brought up from a cell and placed on the stand, was to the effect that he saw part of the pistol protruding from Lucas' pocket, and he warned him of the result of carring a pistol should he be arrested. Willis then pulled the weapon from Lucas' pocket and started away. He denied any intention of keeping the revolver.

Lucas was sentenced to serve three months in jail.

LOST—On Sunday, a Cameo breast pin, on King street, between Henry and Spring Park. Reward will be paid if left at 1114 King street. 1-3t.

Description of Barcroft Dam and Reservoir.

The Barcroft Dam and Storage Reservoir are situated on Holmes Run, Fairfax County, Va., just north of the Columbia Pike and about one mile west of Bailey's cross roads.

The drainage area of Holmes Run above the dam embraces about 14 square miles and is sparsely settled.

The Company owns about 1000 acres, embracing the Reservoir and Dam.

The distance from the Barcroft Dam, via the pipe line, down Holmes Run and along the Little River Pike to the Company's present Distributing Reservoirs on Shooter's Hill is about 5.5 miles.

The Company at present has two Distributing Reservoirs on Shooters Hill, one of 2¼ million and one of 14½ million gallons capacity, a total of 16¾ million gallons. The water surface of these reservoirs when full is about 96 feet above mean tide of Alexandria, Va.

The Barcroft Dam will have a total length of 500 feet with a spillway length of 200 feet.

The maximum height of the dam from the foundation to spillway will be 75.0 feet. The core walls will be 6 feet above the spillway crest.

The maximum width of the base of the dam including the curved apron toe of the spillway section is 70.0 feet.

The width of the dam, 1.5 feet below the top of the rounded crest, will be 6. feet.

The top of the spillway will be elevation 205-00 above mean tide at Alexandra or 109 feet above the water level of the present reservoirs on Shooters Hill.

The Dam will contain about 25,000 cubic yards of Cyclopean concrete, and require about 12,000 cubic yards of rock excavation and 20,000 cubic yards of earth excavation.

The water will enter the Gate Chamber from the reservoir at three different levels through 20 inch diameter pipes.

The outlet to the City will be a 24 inch diameter pipe and a 30 inch diameter pipe will be used for drawing down or emptying the reservoir. All of these pipes will be controlled by gates, operated in the Gate House at the top of the Dam.

The storage Reservoir formed by the Barcroft Dam will contain, when full, 600 million gallons, or over one year's supply with no rainfall, cover 100 acres of ground and be 7 miles in length around its water surface. From the dam it will back the water up Holmes Run on its western branch about 3 miles and on its northern branch about 2¼ miles, all well within the 1000 acres owned by the Alexandria Water Company.

The dam, reservoir and land embracing the same when completed will represent an expenditure of about $250,000.00.

The Piedmont Construction Co. are the contractors for the construction of the dam.

David J. Howell & Son of Washington, D. C., are the engineers who prepared the plans and are in charge of the construction.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

Joseph Willis, Who Killed Virgil Jones Will be Held for the Grand Jury.

Joseph Willis, colored, was held by a coroner's jury, summoned by Dr. R. J. Yates, acting coroner of Alexandria county, yesterday afternoon as having killed Virgil Jones, also colored. Willis will be given a preliminary hearing and held for the action of the authorities of Alexandria county.

PRIZE DRILL YESTERDAY

Dexterity of Alexandria Firemen Again Manifested.

There was a prize drill yesterday of members of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company which demonstrated the efficiency of that organization and its invaluable services in conjunction with the steam engines in times of emergencies.

Arrangements have been made to have two drills, one under the first lieutenant of the company, and one under the second lieutenant.

The test yesterday was in charge of Second Lieutenant Richard Mumford.

The time made was phenomenal. It took one minute and fifty three and four-fifths of a second to take a fifty-five foot ladder from the truck and place it in position. This included the time taken to run one hundred feet with the ladder which weighs about four hundred pounds.

READY FOR BIG DREDGE.

Preliminaries Completed for Removal of Shoal From Georgetown Channel.

All work preliminary to the dredging of the Georgetown channel, from the Highway bridge to Georgetown, has been completed, and everything is in readiness for the coming of the big hydraulic dredge which is to dig the 450,000 cubic yards of material from the bottom of the river and pump it to the low land on the Virginia shore. For the past six weeks a small dredge has been employed in throwing up an embankment across the front at the Agricultural Department experimental station under the hills of Arlington, which it is proposed to raise above tidewater level, and a pile driver has built a longdouble line of piling on which the pipe line, through which the liquid mud will be pumped, will be carried ashore.

IN MEMORIAM.

WOODFIELD—In sad but loving remembrance of our beloved mother, MARY A. WOODFIELD, who fell asleep in Jesus four years ago today, June 2, 1910.

Jesus while our hearts are bleeding
O'er the spoils that death has won,
We would at the solemn meeting
Calmly say, thy will be done.
Though cast down, we are not forsaken,
Though afflicted, not alone,
Thou wd'st give, Thou has taken
Blessed Lord thy will be done.

CARRANZA STILL OFFERS DEFIANCE

Rebels Throws Impediment in Way of Mediators at Niagara Falls.

MAY THWART PLANS.

Conference at a Temporary Standstill—Result of Meeting is as Yet a Problem Hard to Guess.

Niagara Falls, Ontario, June 2.—General Carranza and the constitutionalists still held the center of the Mexican stage today, and as a result of the fiery statement issued by the rebel leader in Durango, it was believed certain he had brought matters nearer to a crisis.

The mediators regard the conference here as an invitational affair. They invited Carranza and he declined. Now, they have insisted, the constitutionalist chief cannot expert to force his way in.

Emilio Rabasa, of the Mexican delegation, declared today that he might issue a statement this afternoon. He said it would not deal with the constitutionalist issue, but declined to state what it would cover. The Mexicans are still merely watching and waiting for some decision from the mediators as to the Carranzistas. Rabasa declared he would not communicate with his government until a decision had been reached, and for the present the Mexicans were merely waiting on the mediators.

The Mexican delegates have shown the greatest uneasiness over the delay in the mediation proceedings, but have not evidenced any opposition to representation of the Carranzistas. Their chief desire is that negotiations here be expedited. The sentiment among them today was that General Carranza's unofficial statement had come at a most inopportune time.

After re[illegible] to the home of his father-in-law, bringing with him his 17-year-old bride, with whom he had eloped, Charles Miller, aged 22, of Philadelphia, yesterday shot and killed himself in the barn on the farm of John C. Pedrick, about six miles from Woodbury.

The little town of Marion, eight miles from Crisfield, Md., was terrorized Saturday night, when three young men of that neighborhood proceeded to shoot up the place. Reading cheap literature and watching moving pictures caused the youth to commit the avert acts. They were arrested.

A further change in the date of the church wedding of Kermit Roosevelt and Miss Belle Wyatt Willard has been announced. The religious ceremony is to be performed June 11 and not June 10, as stated. The civil function will be carried out June 10.

An arson squad of militant suffragettes yesterday destroyed the historic parish church of St. Mary's Wargrave, three miles from Henley, Eng., on the Thames. All that remains of the church, which was built in 1538, is a portion of the tower and the scorched walls. Two women, strangers, were seen in the neighborhood early this morning. Just inside the ruins the firemen found a hammer and heaps of suffragettes literature with a placard "Stop persecuting women."

Robert J. Wynne, Postmaster General in Roosevelt's administration and later consul general at London, yesterday was removed from the presidency of the First National Fire Insurance Company for alleged "official misconduct."

A woman, apparently a Swede, was found wandering naked yesterday near Rimouski. She was dazed and unable to give an account of herself. It is believed that she is a survivor of the wreck of the Empress of Ireland, who made her way to land on a piece of wreckage and was driven insane by suffering.

After it shall have been acted upon by the Board of Aldermen it will be sent to the Common Council. That board will lay it over, under the law, until a subsequent meeting to be held during the next few days.

We will always think of you.

PIUS X RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS

Pontiff Reached, Seventh-ninth Milestone of His Life Today.

MANY WELL WISHES.

Floods of Telegrams, Among Them Missives From Every Ruler. Also From Friends of Other Days.

Rome, June 2.—Pope Pius X was seventy-nine years old today.

From early yesterday until late today a veritable flood of congratulatory letters and telegrams from all over the civilized world poured into the Vatican. Many hundreds came from missionaries and other representatives of the Catholic Church who are in the wilds of countries uncivilized. The good wishes to the Pope came from all classes of people.

The name of every ruler and head of every nation was among the list of messages. But perhaps the messages most highly prized and those which more dearly touched the heart of the pontiff were those from his relatives and the lowly friends he had made as Giuseppe Sarto, a poor boy, when he lived at Riese, Italy.

Scores of visitors, including high church dignitaries, called at the Vatican today to pay their respects. Many cardinals who attended the recent consistory, at which thirteen new cardinals were awarded the red hat, the insignia of their high office, were among the visitors.

One of the traits of the Pope's character, which has endeared him to exalted and humble alike, is the extreme simplicity of his life and his abhorrence of pompous ceremonies when not intended to do honor to God.

Ever since his election one of the features of the policy of Pius X has been the steady curtailment of expenses and the abolition of offices which the changed times and the new state of things have rendered obsolete and merely decorative.

LIQUOR SELLERS FINED.

William Clift and John Penn Assessed Fifty Dollars Each.

In the latter part of last summer the police stopped an ark which had been used as a floating bar room as it was about to leave the foot of Duke street on a Sunday morning, and they arrested the proprietor upon the charge of maintaining a nuisance. It was the custom of the owner of the ark to place it at a point close to the reclaimed cove at the southeastern section of the city and operate a small boat from the ark to the shore for the benefit of such persons as desired to obtain liquor on Sundays.

The accused, it will be remembered, was brought before the Police Court and fined $50. He took an appeal to the Corporation Court and that tribunal affirmed the action of the Police Court and added $100 to the fine which had been imposed, making $150 in all.

Since that time complaints have occasionally been made that a similar floating saloon was being operated on Sundays near the outlet lock of the old Alexandria Canal, and that parties desiring liquor on Sunday found all they wanted in this aquatic retreat.

Officer Roland yesterday afternoon took in custody a man known as William alias "Spider" Clift on the charge of furnishing liquor to colored men.

The case came up in the Police Court this morning.

The evidence was to the effect that Joseph Willis, the negro who shot and killed Virgil Jones, colored, at the Potomac railroad yards Sunday night, was furnished with liquor by John alias "Nep" Penn, and that the latter procured it from Clift. Nat Brooks, colored, watchman at the Bryant fertilizer plant, corroborated the statement of Willis. Justice Caton imposed fines of $50 each upon Penn and Clift.

Blue Serge Suits and Other Fine Outing Clothes

The Blue Serge Suit has a standard value as an outing or summer garment that cannot be discredited or reduced in the slightest degree. We have ready large stocks of fine Blue Serge Suits in many models, a goodly number of which are made expressly for us by Hart, Schaffner & Marx. It is pretty generally conceded that London sets the style; we have the London type and the more conservative also.

$15. to $35. each

Our special $25.00 Blue Serge Suit is a value that far surpasses our best efforts. In former seasons the suit made of this same quality material has been priced at $35.00. The lowering in price is due to change in tariff as the fabric is a fine imported English, the other a modified style.

Hammock Time is Here

The convenience and pleasure to be had from a good hammock in the summer time will prove a revelation to those who have not had the good kind. A poor hammock that has no shape cannot be comfortable nor safe, and there is no pleasure in them.

We would like to show you a hammock that is built for actual use and for continual use. There is the greatest difference in hammocks, as you well know. Let us show you the good one

EXPANSION OF THE WATER WORKS.

Whatever may be our views on the subject of the rates charged by the Alexandria Water Company for supplying water to its consumers in the city, the expansion of its system as explained to the city fathers yesterday is a source of gratification to all and relieves from our minds forever the possibility of a water famine. After the new dam and reservoir have been completed and ready for use a lake three miles long will be shimmering in the sunlight with a depth of sixty-five feet at the dam proper. With such a supply, should there be no rain for a year, an abundance of water could be furnished with no fears from an ordinary drought.

The Alexandrians who visited Barcroft yesterday and had the plans of the engineers explained to them were enthused at the immensity of the undertaking.

HELP FROM OUR WASHINGTON FRIENDS.

An evidence of the friendly feeling existing between Alexandria and Washington is shown by the generous responses made by Washington merchants to the plea of the Alexandria Hospital. Although the letters were sent only a few days ago, a number of contributions have been received. Today a contribution of $250 came from the well known firm of S. Kann Sons & Company, one of the most progressive firms in the district who are always ready to be of assistance to Alexandria in all of its undertakings. Checks of $100 each have been received from A. Lisner, of the Palais Royal, and Eli Sheets, of Martha Washington candy fame besides a number of smaller contributions. A committee has been appointed to call on the Washington firms and there is no doubt but that they will receive many substantial contributions.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS WORK CONCLUDED.

Today's comencement exercises at the Episcopal High School bring to a close seventy-five years work among the boys of Virginia. During this time thousands of boys have passed through its portals and the alumni of the High School are to be found occupying the highest positions in our land. The last term has been one of the most successful in its history. With its new buildings and splendid equipment, it offers every advantage that can be found in any other institution. Alexandria is proud of the work the Episcopal High School is doing.

MONTAGUE'S NAME NOW MENTIONED.

A Washington correspondent of a Baltimore paper sends a letter suggesting that an attempt will be made two years hence to unhorse Senator Swanson of Virginia. The names of several would be successors to the junior senator are mentioned in this connection, and the correspondent says A. J. Montague will probably be pitted against Mr. Swanson.

Mr. Montague attempted to succeed Senator Martin several years ago, and signally failed. Mr. Swanson was elected senator by a large majority of votes three years ago, and during his senatorial career his abilities have been appreciated, and the same large majority which voted him into the position over Carter Glass, so far as can be seen, have no reason to set him aside.

What is known as the "anti-organization" forces in Virginia have for years been endeavorng to minimize the powers and labors of the present senators from this state. While a small percentage of people at home refuse to acknowledge their abilities, the country at large seems to understand them and are proud of the men Virginia sends to the upper and lower houses of Congress.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

IMPORTANT DECISION.

City Can Hold Out Money Due it For Taxes.

Richmond, June 2.—City Attorney Pollard has sent an opinion to the committee on claims, stating that the city may hold out money due it for taxes in settling accounts with persons the city may owe. The opinion is in regard to the claim of A. C. Bedford against the city for $550.

Bedford says that the money is due him on account of work done in erecting the memorial gates at Joseph Bryan park. The work was done by the Richmond Structural Steel Corporation, although Bedford was awarded the contract. The price was $4,250, paid in installments.

When the time came for the final payment, $550, the city auditor held up the amount, declaring that Bedford owed the city $341.57 for taxes. Bedford filed a claim against the city for the $550, in which he stated that he had been improperly taxed and that he did not owe the amount named by the city auditor.

The matter was sent to the city attorney for an opinion, and he wrote that if Bedford was improperly taxed, it would be an easy matter for him to establish that fact and that the city treasurer had a perfect right to hold out the amount due for taxes in settling with Bedford.

Murder and Suicide.

New York, June 1.—Murder and suicide ended marital difficulties in the lives of Stephen Horvath and his wife, Julia, here early today. The man went to her home at 505 East Seventy-ninth street and shot her through the breast and neck.

Then he ran to the roof of the six-story tenement and plunged to his death in a vacant lot beside it. Mrs. Horvath will die.

BANKS MAY CONSOLIDATE

Richmond Institutions Expected to Merge in Near Future.

Richmond, June 2.—Stockholders of the Main-Street bank, at a meeting to be held Thursday morning, will, in all probability, endorse and ratify a resolution passed by the board of directors entering into an agreement with the Broadway National bank for the merging of the two institutions. Under the agreement ratified by the directors the deposits of the two banks will be combined and the Broadway National will acquire the building now occupied by the Main-Street bank.

The Main-Street Bank, according to a letter explaining the merger sent out to the stockholders by President Barbour, will acquire half of the $200,000 capital stock of the Broadway National, stockholders of the Main-Street institution being stockholders in the new bank. The deposits of the Main-Street will be taken over and their payments assumed by the Broadway National. The merger will give the Broadway National a capital stock of $500,000, and it will be a member of the federal reserve system.

SHERIFF KILLED IN DUEL.

Two Others Wounded In Street Fight At Trade, Tenn.

Bristol, Va.-Tenn., June 2—Deputy Sheriff Ham Phipps was killed and Roby Wallace and a man named Potter were perhaps fatally wounded in a pistol duel at Trade, Johnson county, Tenn., according to advices from there.

Arthur and Ira Stansberry, brothers from North Carolina, are said to have done the shooting. The Stansberry brothers are said to have been firing their revolvers near the public school building at Trade while a school commencement was in progress. Deputy Sheriff Phipps and Roy Wallace undertook to arrest them and the boys are alleged to have opened fire on the officer.

Phipps was shot six times, three bullets penetrating his breast, three in his abdomen. Wallace and Potter, said to be friends of the Stanberrys, were also wounded. The Stansberrys escaped and are believed to be in hiding in the North Carolina mountains.

Owes His Life to This Lung Remedy

If you neglect a continued cough or cold you are in constant danger of easily contracting serious Lung Trouble. The cough or cold which does not yield to ordinary treatment should be a warning to you and preventive measures should be taken as soon as possible. In many cases Eckman's Alterative, a remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, has brought permanent recovery. Read this:—

Catherine Ave. and Ascot Place, Queens Court, L. I. N. Y.

"Gentlemen: In the year 1908 I was taken with a heavy cold and a nasty short cough. I went to several doctors, who gave me a lot of medicine. Finally, I went to a specialist, who gave me creosote that made me sick of all kinds of food; consequently I failed in health. I then went to the Catskills, and seemed to get better, but the cough still kept up. I stayed there for one year, and then went to a farm near Jersey City, a very sick man. About the time of my return, my brother recommended Eckman's Alterative to me very highly. It is now nearly two years since I first took it. I am now well, and I dare say that I would have been buried long ago if it had not been for Eckman's Alterative."
(Affidavit) JOSEPH J. TROESCHER.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists
